

"WHAT'S ON THE NEWS?" – PARTICIPANTS WANTED WORKSHOP AND EXPERIMENT ON MEMORY AND MEDIA

With artist Stine Marie Jacobsen and Museum of Contemporary Art

Museet for Samtidskunst invites to a workshop and experiment lead by Stine Marie Jacobsen. The experiment will be a part of an art project on memory and the media's framing of the news.

Stine Marie Jacobsen works conceptually with society, media, language and gender. In the workshop, the participants will discuss important and relevant issues.

Everyone can join in and participate. Please notice that you have to be able to participate for one hour in both parts of the experiment. See dates below.

Conclusively there is a free, public talk with the artist and psychologist of language Anne Uhrskov on November 1st at 16:30-18:30 in Byens Hus.

The experiments is a mediation lab in the 4Cs project - a European project on crises and conflicts supported by Creative Europe.

HOW TO JOIN

Write or call Phillip Danstrup, fillipda@samtidskunst.dk / 631 6575 to arrange dates and times. It's also possible to bring a friend.

You will be introduced to a story from the media and will then be interviewed by artist Stine Marie Jacobsen. Interviews can be conducted in Danish, English or German. It takes an hour - we'll offer tea and snacks.

PART ONE

September 23rd 2019. 1 hour between 10 and 20 or
September 24th 2019. 1 hour between 10 and 20

PART TWO

October 30th 2019. 1 hour between 10 and 20 or
October 31st 2019. 1 hour between 10 and 20

TALK ON MEMORY AND MEDIA

November 1st at 16.30 – 18.30

Artist Stine Marie Jacobsen and psychologist of language Anne Uhrskov conclude and reveal the experiment in Byens Hus.

Free and open to everyone interested!

Everything happens at Byens Hus, Stændertorvet 1

See more at samtidskunst.dk